VOLUME I NUMBER VI

AUGUST 2023 - JANUARY 2024

PRESIDING BISHOP'S EPISTLE

Praised be Jesus Christ!

A blessed new year of grace and salvation to you all – and greetings to all of you, beloved in the Lord. After another seemingly-long hiatus in writing to you, it is a welcome opportunity and privilege in this sixth Presiding Bishop's Epistle to share with all of you an update about recent goings-on in our part of the Household of Faith, and to provide information on future events. It remains the joy of a lifetime to offer pastoral care and support to and for you, to travel throughout the Eastern United States and North America, to visit and cheer as many of our churches and faithful as possible, and to bear witness in person to the health and growth of our Church's communion. In my daily prayers, I praise God for all of you.

The 2024 Lenten Appeal – Saint Dunstan's Academy

We ask for your support of the 2024 APA Lenten Appeal on behalf of Saint Dunstan's Academy in Roseland, Nelson County, Virginia, the first residential school for young men in the history of the Continuing Church. With the creation of Saint Dunstan's Academy comes the renewal of the great Anglican tradition of residential education in community. This boarding school for high school boys is dedicated to Christian formation in the Anglican Tradition alongside an education in the classics, in agriculture, and in skilled trades. Saint Dunstan's Academy will provide an intensive and nurturing academic, intellectual, spiritual, and practical formation for young men in their most vigorous high school years, with programmes available for men in their 'gap year' before undergraduate college studies. Saint Dunstan's is an academic institution like no other in Anglicanism.

It is our goal this year to raise $150,000 for the Academy. This collection will enable the Academy to begin with its first class later this year. A successful Lenten Appeal will enable Saint Dunstan's to build a bunkhouse to house the first cohort of students.

We have a unique opportunity to support a ministry that is geared to raise up a whole new generation of young men committed to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and our Catholic and Anglican Faith. From Saint Dunstan's Academy, many future vocations to Christian service, including Holy Orders and the Religious Life, will be cultivated. Saint Dunstan's trailblazing vision has drawn attention throughout Anglicanism in North America and throughout the world of classical education. May our Saviour bless you as you prayerfully consider your financial support for this distinctive and all-important project. Please be generous!

2024 Spring Clergy Retreat

Our third annual Spring Clergy Retreat is coming soon and will be held in the uniquely charming and entertaining town of Helen, Georgia, nestled in the Blue Ridge Mountains of north Georgia. This gathering will be an event one will not want to miss! From Tuesday 9th April to Thursday 11th April, we shall revel in a grand time of worship, prayer, fellowship, conversation, and fun. Please mark your calendars and make plans to join us now. The Retreat will be held at the Holiday Inn Express in downtown Helen (and yes, that's a joke – Helen is a small and quaint Alpine village). All of Helen's terrific shops, restaurants, and bars will be within easy walking distance of the hotel. The charm of Bavaria in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The theme for our time together will be G1? - Ecclesial Communion in Continuing Anglicanism and Ecumenical Prospects for the Future. I shall be joined by the DEUS Board of Examining Chaplains and other APA speakers for a presentation and open discussion about the present and future of the Continuing Church. Again, one will not want to miss it. Information about accommodations will be provided in this Epistle.

News Notes for latter 2023 and early 2024

Delayed because of ongoing construction, the blessing and dedication of the new building at Saint Matthias Church, Dothan, Alabama occurred with great rejoicing on Saturday 30th September. The following day, the institution of the Reverend Father Stephen Michael Miller as Rector of Saint Matthias took place on Sunday 1st October. Please pray for Father Steve and his family as he begins his new ministry.

CONTINUATION OF PRESIDING BISHOP'S EPISTLE

Father Steve serves as the first Rector in the history of Saint Matthias, as it now enjoys parish status.

The annual Diocesan Synod of the Eastern United States and the Provincial Synod of the Anglican Province of America were held at the third Anglican Joint Synods (G3) from 9th to 14th October 2023 in Orlando, Florida. What a truly happy and celebratory time it was for us all! Our Diocesan and Provincial Synods heard supernal presentations on the new Book of Common Prayer Morning and Evening Prayer application, the new building complex at Saint Barnabas Cathedral, Atlanta, Georgia, Saint Dunstan's Academy, Nelson County, Virginia, the new building at Saint Matthias Church, Dothan, Alabama, the new mission of Christ Church, Florence, Kentucky, the new building at Saint Patrick's Church, Brevard, North Carolina, the building addition at Saint James on-the-Glebe Church, Gloucester, Virginia, and the Classical School of All Saints Church, Mills River, North Carolina.

The Joint Synods featured special presentations, teaching, and conversation on the current state of the Continuing Church and the ways by which we can renew mission building, priestly vocations, and Church expansion in the future. I participated in a public panel regarding these prescient and meaningful deliberations and presented two papers, one on the present condition of the Church and our need for revitalisation, and another on the highly-effective APA formation process for Holy Orders. It was by all accounts a successful and productive Joint Synods assembly. Our Diocesan Synod 2024 will be held in Greensboro, North Carolina.

On Wednesday 18th October, the Reverend Mister Ian Patrick Jarrells was ordained to the Sacred Order of Deacons at Saint Philip's Church, Blacksburg, Virginia for service at Saint Thomas the Apostle Church in Alto, Georgia. Father Ian's new ministry is already bearing fruit in north Georgia. An investigative trip then ensued to beautiful Lewisburg, West Virginia on 19th October to scout out the location for our new mission, Saint John the Baptist Church, which congregation is now organising in that breathtaking region of southern West Virginia. More information on Saint John the Baptist is forthcoming.

On the weekend of 21st and 22nd October, I was delighted to visit Saint John's Church, Greensboro, North Carolina to join the parish for its 25th anniversary celebration. Over recent years, Saint John's has continued exponentially to grow numerically and spiritually. Plans are now underway for a future building expansion.

A remarkable advance for Christian and Catholic unity has been achieved at All Souls' Church in Asheboro, North Carolina, where I visited from 28th to 29th October. After years of consideration and careful reflection, the former Saint Andrew's Church (Reformed Episcopal Church) has chosen to unite with All Souls' and to affiliate with the mission and our Diocese and Province. The union almost doubles the membership of All Souls' and brings the mission much closer to parish status, a goal which we hope will be reached in the coming year. Ut unum sint. I shall return to All Souls' on 25th February officially to welcome all the new members.

It is always a pleasure to visit All Saints Church, Mills River, North Carolina, which I did on the weekend of 4th and 5th November. Once more this past year it was a treat to return to the Diocesan Women's Retreat from 8th to 10th November at the Monastery of Our Lady of the Holy Spirit in Conyers, Georgia to serve as retreat conductor. Our theme was the theology of the temple and temple worship in biblical revelation.

The online Synod of the Diocese of the Central and Western States was held on 18th November - and I was excited to bring greetings and words of encouragement to that august meeting on behalf of the entire Province. It was splendid to visit Saint Peter's Church, Kingsport, Tennessee on 9th and 10th December.

From 11th to 13th December, the Domestic Missions Team met in Abingdon, Virginia at the exceptionally comfortable and hospitable Jubilee House Retreat Centre to discuss the ongoing missionary work and strategy of our Diocese. It was the most inspiring, aspirational, and creative meeting to date, replete with excellent ideas and plans for greater missionary effort. I wish to thank Canon Wade Miller, Father Scott Greene, Father Kevin Fife, Father Steve Miller, and Father Mark Perkins for their ministry in service to our Diocese and Province.

On Thursday 14th December, the Reverend Father Briane Keith Turley was ordained to the Sacred Order of Priests (sub conditione) at Saint Philip's Church, Blacksburg, Virginia for service at the new Saint John the Baptist Church in Lewisburg, West Virginia. Father Briane brings with him into the APA a cornucopia of academic brilliance, wisdom, and practical and pastoral experience - he has served in the priesthood for many years and is a Professor of Religion at West Virginia University.

After a brief delay because of cold and ice, the institution of the Reverend Father Sean Edwards McDermott as Rector of All Saints' Church, Charlottesville, Virginia occurred on Sunday 7th January, along with the annual episcopal visitation. We thank Our Lord for the new ministry of Father Sean and his family, as we also give thanks for the faithful and unwavering service of the Reverend Canon Glenn M. Spencer and his wife Ann over a 32-year span at All Saints' Church as Father Glenn retires. All Saints' Charlottesville stands out as an epicentre for our common life and labour in the APA.

A jovial and engaging time ensued with an episcopal visitation to Saint Matthew's Church, Weaverville, North Carolina on 14th January. On 17th-18th January, the ninth meeting of the Anglican Joint Synods (G3) – Polish National Catholic Church Dialogue transpired over Zoom and in person in Charleston, South Carolina. The Dialogue is, rather unexpectedly, again making strides and deserves your prayers. Please keep this intention in your intercessions.

From 19th to 21st January, I was overjoyed to make a first official episcopal visitation to the truly glorious Saint Mark's Church, Vero Beach, Florida. Following that trip, Canon Wade Miller and I ventured on a fascinating and illuminating fact-finding journey to Louisiana, including jaunts into east Texas and Mississippi, from 22nd to 25th January. A significant missionary development has established itself in Louisiana, and soon we shall have a great deal more to say about this one mission Church plant in particular. Please stay tuned.

February and March 2024

Another first as your Presiding Bishop will occur from 9th to 11th February, when I shall be altogether thrilled to make my first official visitation to Saint Alban's Cathedral in Oviedo, Florida. Upon my visitation, it will be my profound delight officially to declare the Most Reverend Walter Howard Grundorf, DD, to be Presiding Bishop Emeritus of the Province and Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese. It will be lovely to return to several other parishes soon - All Saints' Parish, Wilmington, North Carolina, on 17th and 18th February, Saint Philip's Church, Blacksburg, Virginia on 2nd and 3rd March, and Saint Patrick's Church, Brevard, North Carolina, on 9th and 10th March.

And then yet another first is scheduled from 12th to 15th March. I have been invited by the Dean and administration to visit for the first time in my life the famous Nashotah House Theological Seminary in Nashotah, Wisconsin. It will be an intense honour to preach before the student body and faculty of the Seminary and to have a few days to experience the unique life and formation proffered by Nashotah House. We trust that this impending sojourn will only deepen and strengthen the good relationship we already have with 'the House.'

April 2024

April travels will conclude with episcopal visitations to Saint James-on-the-Glebe Church, Gloucester, Virginia from the 13th to the 14th for the blessing and dedication of its new expanded chapel, which space has dramatically increased the capacity for worshippers, and Saint Paul's Church and Classical School in Melbourne, Florida from the 27th to the 28th.

Many thanks

It is ever a gift and happiness beyond measure to visit our Church family and friends for annual episcopal visitations, Confirmations, receptions of new members, Ordinations, prayer, and ecumenical relations. Together we are continuing to expand and extend the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church in her Anglican Rite. Please perpetually pray for our clergy, people, and parishes. We are pressing on the Kingdom! Please remember you are welcome to contact me personally on 404.313.9448 or bishopchjones@anglicanprovince.org. Each of you abides continually in my love and prayers. God bless you!

In Our Blessed Lord, +Chad

Thank You—India School Scholarships

Thanks to the generosity of several churches and a number of individuals we have been able to raise sufficient funds for a total of 121 scholarships for the children at the Good Shepherd School in Kollur, Telangana, South India. In previous years we have raised between 45 and 55 scholarships. Thank you all for your very generous gifts which will help break the cycle of oppression and poverty among the Dalits in this region of India.

Also, please remember our Global Partnerships in your giving as the needs in each of our Foreign Churches remain very acute and we cannot continue to function efficiently without your generous gifts.

+David Haines, APA Missionary Bishop of Global Partnerships

APA Spring Clergy Retreat, April 9-11, 2024

Our annual APA Spring Clergy Retreat will be held at the Holiday Inn Express in Helen, Georgia. The Retreat Registration is free but we will need each person to complete a registration form for meeting and lunch count. The registration form will be on our website soon. All meetings will be at the hotel. The hotel has a nice outside area with a firepit for lounging and fellowship. There are wonderful Bavarian restaurants throughout the small town and even a chocolatier right next to the hotel. We have a special APA group rate so please use the link that will be provided in future email notices or ask for the "APA" group rate. Standard rooms are $129/night (double queen or king), queen suites for $149/night, and queen jacuzzi suites for $179/night. There is a limited number of rooms at the $129/night rate, so don't delay if you wish to secure the most economical room rate. The last day to get the group rates is March 11. After that groups will be released to the general public.

Schedule:

The DEUS BEC will arrive on the evening of Monday, April 8th, and conduct its meeting and candidate interviews on Tuesday, April 9th. The DEUS BAC Upper and Lower will hold any necessary interviews on April 9th. All APA clergy, spouses, and DEUS committee members are welcome to arrive by April 9th from 5:00pm-6:00pm for a casual meet and greet in our general meeting room before heading out to the restaurant of your choice. Wednesday, April 10th, will have a morning and early afternoon session, with lunch provided, and then plenty of time to explore the town after the afternoon session. The DEUS Standing Committee will meet on Wednesday mid-afternoon. Thursday, April 11th will be the last session with the conclusion of the retreat by noon.

DCWS News

Saint Jude's Anglican Church, Tucson, Arizona, joined the Diocese of the Central and Western States, APA, from the United Episcopal Church in North America (UECNA), along with their Rector, the Reverend John David Milam. Their website is www.stjudetucson.org. Welcome Fr. Milam and the parishioners at Saint Jude's Church!

The DCWS also welcomed the Rev. Ronald Murray, formerly of the UECNA, as the Associate Priest at the DCWS Pro-Cathedral of St. Chad's Anglican Church.

We thank to thank everyone for their prayers and personal support on behalf of Father Iann Dunn, his wife Julie, and their children Lucy and Sammy. Sam is still healing from the last few intense months of medical treatment, but the whole APA rejoices that he is doing well.

Annual Parish Reports: Due March 1, 2024

As required by APA Canon 43, all churches in the Province are to turn in their annual Parochial Reports (Jan. 1-Dec. 31, 2023) to their Bishop Ordinary. The deadline is March 1 each year. All forms must be submitted online via the APA website at www.anglicanprovince.org under the "Resources" tab and "Parish Reports." A worksheet to prepare answers before entering online is also available on the website. The online form will automatically send the parish data to the APA office and send a copy to the church email address used for submission. The church data will be forwarded to the Bishop Ordinary for each diocese.

Non-parochial Clergy Reporting by March 1

As a non-parochial priest not in charge of a parish, the APA Canons state that you must give a report at least yearly to your Diocesan Bishop. (Canon 43, Section 1 of the APA Canons reads in part: "And every Minister not in charge of any Parish or Congregation shall also report his occasional services and if there have been none, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same.") This does not have to be a formal letter, as an email will suffice.

Please include your most current email and physical mailing address and phone (s) so we can ensure our records are accurate. We would enjoy and appreciate hearing from you.

For DEUS: Send a letter/email to Bishop Chandler Holder Jones at office@anglicanprovince.org or DEUS Office, 3070 Windward Plaza Ste F #327, Alpharetta, GA 30005-9837.

For DCWS: Send a letter/email to Bishop Robert Todd Giffin at bishop.giffin@gmail.com or St. Chad's Pro-Cathedral, 11919 Orsinger Lane, San Antonio, Texas, 78230.

Mass Distribution Email Systems

We are currently sending the majority of our mass emails for items such as the Comprovincial, the Bishop's Epistle, Clergy Retreats, and Synod notices via systems called ChurchCast and MailChimp. Please add mychurchcast.com to your "safe sender" list in your email address book as we want to ensure you receive important notices. If you have any issues, please contact the office at office@anglicanprovince.org or 407-657-0880.
